Round Test	Participation
2018-1	yes
2018-2	yes
2018-3	yes

The Bremen Cotton Round Tests offer the opportunity for every laboratory to compare its cotton test results with laboratories all over the world and include all common cotton test methods / instrument types. In 2018, 155 laboratories were registered as Round Test Participants.

Participation in interlaboratory comparisons is recommended for quality management e.g. in ISO 17025. With a periodic participation in the Bremen Cotton Round Tests this laboratory shows that it cares for the reliability of its test results.
